Max. Player Handicaps: Men-30 • Women-36

Deadline to Register is April 30, 2008

Carved out of a magnificent tropical rain forest on the windward side of the 2,000-foot Ko`olau Ridge mountain range, Ko`olau encompasses three distinct climate zones and features winding ravines, extreme elevation changes, and breathtaking views of cascading waterfalls. Situated on eastern Oahu, the rugged landscape of this tropical jungle course uses ravines as the target for holes and boasts lush vegetation and huge sand bunkers. Considered the toughest course in the nation from the back tees with a slope rating of 152, Ko`olau's spectacular setting will inspire you from beginning to end.
